

WINE LIST

House Selection White

	Bottle	175ml	250ml	500ml
1 2015 Chardonnay Dominio de Vegasan – Spain Excellent Chardonnay from La Mancha. Lots of green apple on the nose that moves towards slightly more honeyed and tropical fruit on the palate. Superbly balanced acidity makes this wine a wonderfully refreshing Summer white.	£18.00	£4.50	£6.35	£12.60
2 2015 Sauvignon-Vermentino Domaine Saint Félix – France A brilliant blend of Sauvignon and Vermentino, this is crisp and fresh with aromatic stone fruit balanced by a clean fresh finish, if only all house wine could be this good.	£18.50	£4.60	£6.55	£12.95
3 2015 Pinot Grigio 'Altariva' Cantina Valdadige – Italy Bright fleshy fruit with juicy apple and pear drop, perfect example of how good Pinot Grigio can be.	£21.50	£5.35	£7.60	£15.05

House Selection Rose

4 2015 Grenache-Cinsault Rosé Domaine Saint Félix – France A light, fruity rose produced from a blend of Grenache and Cinsault grapes, made in the true delicate Provence style.	£19.00	£4.75	£6.70	£13.30
--	---------------	-------	-------	--------

House Selection Red

5 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon Camina – Spain This is a fantastic Cabernet Sauvignon from La Mancha in Spain. It has a clean, intense and bright ruby colour. There are fruity aromas of blackberry on a spicy background. It is great with roasts, red meats and harder cheeses.	£18.00	£4.50	£6.35	£12.60
6 2015 Merlot-Cabernet-Carignan Domaine Saint Félix – France A blend of Merlot, Cabernet and Carignan, this is soft and smooth with juicy black berry fruit and silky tannins on the finish.	£19.50	£4.85	£6.90	£13.65
7 2015 Tempranillo-Merlot Bodegas y Viñedos Olvena – Spain Bright and fruity with ripe plum and a hint of chocolate.	£20.00	£5.00	£7.05	£14.00

Champagne & Sparkling

Bottle 125ml

8 Prosecco Treviso Brut Il Follo – Italy

Bright fresh and zippy with rich citrus, peach and white flowers, palate has nice intensity with Apple, lemon and peach fruit, crisp and lively, decent mousse, good length.

£30.00 £6.00

9 Cuvée Rosé Spumante Rosato – Italy

Delicately pink sparkling wine from the Prosecco region, blended with 15% Cabernet Sauvignon making for a very attractive and quaffable 'aperitivo'.

£29.00

10 NV Baron Albert Brut Tradition – France

Tasted 'blind' in a line-up of inexpensive champagnes (as well as one Grande Marque) this showed remarkably well, coming out as a clear winner. Bright, light and very fresh, this is an easy drinking 'aperitif' champagne with a very good finish.

£46.00

11 NV Louis Roederer Brut Premier – Champagne

Fine, dry nose with lemon sorbet notes. Balanced with toast and apple zest on palate. Young but clean, refined and elegant.

£60.00

White Wines

Bottle 175ml 250ml 500ml

12 2014 Indaba Chenin Blanc – South Africa

Like so many Chenin from here - this has great flow and drive. Indaba was created as a celebration of the democratisation process in South Africa and from its inception, profits from sales have been channelled in to local charities that concentrate on the education of some of the Cape's most troubled, poverty stricken people.

£22.50 £5.60 £7.95 £15.75

13 2015 Viognier Domaine les Yeuses – France

Full of ripe peachy/mango fruit without being overblown - a must try in this vintage.

£24.50 £6.10 £8.65 £17.15

14 2014 Picpoul de Pinet Sainte-Peyre – France

Classic Picpoul, racing acidity with lime, lemon and zesty notes, crisp pure and all held together with a mineral core.

£25.00

15 2015 Pinot Grigio Vina Laguna – Croatia

Another fine vintage from our friends in Croatia - this is delicious Pinot Grigio with real character. Soft, fleshy fruit and bright acidity. Very good all round drinking.

£25.50

16 2013 Gavi Etichetta la Marchesa – Italy

Delightfully fresh Gavi from this historic estate, lots of bright fruit - citrus notes but no hard edges and a lovely weight and texture.

£26.00

17 2016 Bascand Estate Waipara Springs Sauvignon Blanc – New Zealand

Classic NZ stylings here - A lovely pungent tropical fruit, kiwi, passion fruit and papaya nose. The palate has similar fruit with a lovely texture, crisp, bright acid and then good length.

£26.50 £6.60 £9.35 £18.55

18 2015 Grüner Veltliner Hochterrassen Salomon Undhof – Austria

Bright Gruner with a good dollop of fruit, fresh white pepper and crunchy acidity, all in all making it fabulous value too. This is a great example of Austria's signature grape variety from a real master.

£30.00

White Wines

Bottle

175ml 250ml 500ml

- 19 2015 Mâcon Villages Domaine de la Denante – France £31.00
Showing all the delicious fruit extract of the vintage with melons, peach, fig and citrus, wrapped in a creamy, buttery blanket, finishing bright and energetic due to a lively acidic balance.
- 20 2013 Dombeya Chardonnay – South Africa £32.50
Lovely bright fig, peach and some fresh tropical notes with a touch of cream and nut. The palate has real freshness, a great core of ripe fruit, a touch smoky, then a rich acid lift to the long buttery finish.
- 21 2015 Páramos De Nicasia White Verdejo Màquina & Tabla – Spain £33.00 £8.25 £11.65 £23.10
Beautifully pure aromatics of fragrant lemon, grapefruit, peach and wild flowers, glorious flow and weight. Lemon pith and flesh, peach and grapefruit fills the palate, that is bright, fresh, mouth filling and long, great acidity gives the wine real poise and drive.
- 22 2014 Godello Maga – Spain £33.00
Almalarga' means large in spirit, and this Godello certainly has plenty of that. Made from 80 to 100 year old vines and given four months on the lees, with a distinctive Chablis-like personality from these steep vineyards on the banks of the Ribeira Sacra in Galicia. Fresh, precise and focused fruit with masses of character and a lovely texture for such a simple variety. Lively, mineral and fresh, a wine for drinking both on its own and with food.
- 23 2014 Riesling Trocken Weingut Braunewell – Germany £33.50
Dry (trocken) Riesling from the Braunewell brothers estate in the Rheinhessen. Bright and pure, marginally fuller on the palate than the 2013, it shows its class on the long finish where the flavours develop.
- 24 2014 Sancerre Chavignol Domaine Vincent Delaporte – France £40.50
A perfect balance of fruit and firm minerality. This wine is composed of vines with an average age of 30-35 years. Thanks to a diversity of soils types, principally flint and limestone and a strict blending of wines from 28 plots, which adds finesse, aromatic complexity and minerality to this wine.
- 25 2014 Chablis 1er Cru Fourchaume Adhemar et Francis Boudin – France £42.00
Yellow stone fruits, apricot, flowers and spices are some of the notes that melt together in this superb 2014 Chablis Fourchaume.
- 26 2012 Puligny Montrachet Noyers Brets Domaine Fernand & Laurent Pillot – France £60.00
A sumptuous Puligny that is aromatically open with a flavour that spreads well across the palate with a tangy freshness.

Rose Wines

- 27 2015 Made in Provence Rose – France £31.00
Full of fabulous flavours of wild strawberries, creamy acidity and a long, crisp, dry finish. This can be drunk all too easily on its own, and is the perfect partner for any summer day.
- 28 2015 Sancerre Rosé Chavignol Domaine Vincent Delaporte – France £38.00
Quite deep in colour with bright red fruits filling the nose, cherries, redcurrants and strawberries, reflecting the strength of the 2015 growing season. Lovely texture on the palate, with rosehip, red cherries and then a lovely bright balancing acidity, a great food Rose.

Red Wines		Bottle	175ml	250ml	500ml
29	2014 Merlot Domaine Les Yeuses – France This is another cracking effort from the fantastic Dardé brothers, they have crafted another brilliant value red here. So attractive in the glass this is full of supple juicy fruit, an excellent and joyous mouthful of silky southern Merlot.	£20.00	£5.00	£7.05	£14.00
30	2014 Tanguero Malbec – Argentina Bright Malbec from Argentina's Malbec capital - Mendoza. This has lovely with notes of warm straw and ripe berries, and just enough grip to keep it interesting.	£21.00	£5.25	£7.40	£14.70
31	2013 Terrapura Pinot Noir – Chile Great tasting Pinot Noir from Chile, bright red cherry fruit with hints of Asian spice.	£22.50	£5.60	£7.95	£15.75
32	2013 Côtes du Rhône Rouge Cuvée Mistral Domaine Coulange – France Domaine Coulange's 'Cuvée Mistral' is 80% Grenache and 20% Syrah. The ripe Grenache dominates the nose again in this fabulous 2013 and is followed on the palate by an abundance of sweet, spicy fruit. Forward and delicious.	£24.50
33	2012 Lea &amp; Sandeman Bordeaux – France This is not a generic Bordeaux blend, but from a single property and with its own discernible style year after year. Deep fruit, bright tannins and fresh acidity.	£26.00
34	2013 Chianti Don Guido Fattoria La Collina – Italy Typical Chianti identity to this vintage - lovely soft feel of plummy, morello cherry fruit a little peppery spice and then a tickle of zesty kick to keep it vital and true.	£25.50
35	2011 Cune Vina Real Rioja Crianza Cvne – Spain This Tinto is luscious without being overblown - lovely deep cherry and plum with such a juicy gloss - framed by soft tannin and some warm spice.	£27.00
36	2015 Beaujolais Villages Domain Rochette – France Lovely concentration of bilberry, myrtle and plum, palate has gorgeous fruit weight, fresh rich cherry, creme de muree, structure depth and great length, brilliant!	£31.00
37	2014 Urban Malbec Bodegas y Vinedos O.Fournier – Argentina Dark-coloured, with equally dark fruit aromas, with clean fruit and some fine elegance. It manages to keep the typicity of the variety quite well, developing aromas of violets. The palate is balanced and fresh, with sweet tannins, intense dark berry flavours and a remarkable finish.	£31.50
38	2013 Dombeya Merlot – South Africa This is a 100% Merlot. Although still young with a tight tannin structure, it opens up with lovely red berry and ripe plum and black cherry flavours. The palate is smooth with fine tannins and lingering fruity concentrated aftertaste.	£33.50
39	2013 Two Rivers Pinot Noir – New Zealand Beautiful elegant aromas of scented summer red fruits. Great balance and poise between savoury and fruit characters on the palate, which are complemented by lightly smoky well-judged and a tense line of fresh acidity, long and pretty finish. Delicious!	£42.00

Red Wines	Bottle	175ml	250ml	500ml
40 2010 Rioja Reserva Bodegas Ruconia – Spain Intense, dark, red cherry colour. Strong aromas of tobacco, toasty notes, creamy and ripe blackberry aromas. Round, velvety and full of volume, leaving toasted, spicy notes on the palate.	£36.00	£9.00	£12.70	£25.20
41 2015 Fleurie Clos de la Roilette – France Very pure with lovely definition of fruit, and a crisp minerality that makes it so drinkable. A very class act.	£36.50
42 2014 Bourgogne Rouge Pinot Noir Domaine Joël Remy – France Fragrant fresh cherry, spicy, damson fruit, palate has grip, but lovely fresh red fruits, touch of spice, ripe tannins, lovely acidity, good length.	£36.50
43 2013 Barbera d'Alba Andrea Oberto – Italy Deep ruby red, with purplish highlights somewhat lightened by oak ageing. On the nose, the oak is well-integrated with notes of dried plum and bottled cherries. Alcoholic warmth in the mouth, which shows toasty oak, ripe berry, and fruit preserves.	£37.00
44 2009 Grand Vin de Glenelly – South Africa This is the signature red wine of the Glenelly Estate, a blend of Shiraz, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Petit Verdot. Aged in French oak 'barriques' (Taransaud), using a combination of new, second and third fill barrels for a total of eighteen months. A very beautifully perfumed wine which immediately strikes you for both its vibrancy and elegance. Sweet spice, tight fruit tannins and a touch of vanillin from the oak combine to make a really exciting and great value wine from the Cape.	£38.00
45 2013 Crozes Hermitage Papillon Gilles Robin – France Bright violet colour. Peppery dark berries on the nose and in the mouth. Displays good energy and lift, with the peppery note building through a taut, focused, gently tannic finish.	£41.00
46 2009 Château D'aurilhac Cru Bourgeois Médoc – France Deep dark colour, an obviously ripe Cabernet nose, as one might expect of a 2009, with some oakiness. Fleshy and expansive on the palate, with good volume of ripe dark berry fruit and soft feel of ripe tannins. Still youthful despite its ripe appeal.	£47.00
47 2010 Haskell Estate IV – South Africa Smooth entry of this dark coloured red wine. The nose changes from berry, plum and chocolate flavours to tobacco and Christmas pudding and finally ends in prune and liquorice. The palate is soft and full bodied with a lively freshness from the acidity.	£49.00

Dessert Wine, Sherry, Port

Bottle 50ml

- |  |               |       |
|--|---------------|-------|
| 49 2011 Chateau Monteils Cru Bourgeois Sauternes – FranceTop quality Sauternes from this young winemaker and unusually good at this price level. Perhaps a little lighter in colour and weight than previous vintages but still amply rich and sweet with a creamy, waxy texture and a cut of acidity that keeps the whole beautifully streamlined.           | £24.00 | £3.95 |
| 50 NV Rutherglen Muscat – AustraliaBright amber gold with copper tints. Fresh raisin fruit backed by subtle oak characters. Luscious mouthfilling raisined fruit combine with the oak flavours to produce a wine of great length.   | £30.00 | £3.95 |
| 51 2011 Mas Amiel Vintage Maury Domaine Mas Amiel – FranceDeep ruby/purple in colour with full, ripe, bramble jam fruit and Grenache's trademark black pepper to balance the sweetness. It's a relatively simple wine, but renowned for going with chocolate and summer-berry puddings.   | £33.00 | £4.35 |
| 52 2013 Les Pins Monbazillac Château Tirecul la Gravière – FranceIt is an understatement to say these are the greatest wines I have ever tasted from Monbazillac; in fact, they are among the greatest sweet wines I have tasted ... from anywhere! "Robert Parker".  | £33.00 | £4.35 |
| 53 2004 Coteaux Du Layon Beaulieu Château De Pierre Bise – FranceDeveloping with age so deep-coloured but by no means old, quite softly round with hints of golden syrup and waxy fruit. It immediately brought toffee-apple or tarte tatin to mind, with either of which it would go very well, with its notes of caramelised fruit and a hint of spice too. | £42.00 | £5.60 |
| 54 Niepoort Ruby Dum PortPlum, Redcurrant, SpiceA rich & fruity drop  | £39.00 | £3.95 |
